

The UK National Committee is reinforcing UNIFEM's global call for action to end violence against women and we need your help to keep our number of actions growing. On this page, you can stay up to date with our latest actions and find out how you can get involved.

Some of our recently logged actions include:

UNIFEM in Edinburgh Coffee Morning:

On 15 June, Callum Hendry (White Ribbon Campaign Scottish Coordinator) was the guest speaker at a fundraising coffee morning organised by the Edinburgh branch of UNIFEM. White Ribbon Campaign is a global network of men campaigning to end men's violence against women. Callum spoke about the history of WRC and the social problems that the campaign works to address.

UNIFEM at the Belfast Mela: 29 August

Join UNIFEM Northern Ireland at the Botanic Gardens for the Belfast Mela on 29 August. Admission is free and the branch will be running an information stand, collecting signatures on the Say No Pledge Sheets and raising funds for the Trust Fund to End Violence Against Women with exciting initiatives such as non-stop musical performances.

UNIFEM in Wales – Violence Against Women Conference: 15 October

UNIFEM in Wales, in partnership with Black Association of Women Step Out and the Law Society Wales, has organised a conference, on 15 October, to explore the devastating effects of violence against women and to ask whether the legal framework to protect victims is adequate.

Please join the call for action by registering your support online at www.saynotoviolence.org or by collecting signatures on the sign-up sheets you can download from the site. We collected 50 signatures at a workshop on women's issues at the recent United Nations Association (UK) Forum event in London. Every signature is an action and every action counts.
